Frank Putt - Maude Brugh Family and family back to American Revolution

This book traces the Putt family through Putt Getz & Palm to the American Revolution.
Sarah Ann Getz wife of George W. Putt - her mother was Elizabeth Palm.
The Getz & Palm families lived near Palmyra Lebanon Co. Pa. They attended Bindnagles Church which is still used to-day.
We are descendants of Dr. John Palm's second marriage.
I have included the D.A.R. papers of a descendant of Dr. John's third marriage named Tobias Palm.
If anyone should wish to enter D.A.R. through this line most of the proof is in this book with the exception of Nicholas Getz and Dr. Peter Palm. Also need some records on Sarah Ann Getz, wife of George W. Putt.
Photos in this book are a collection given me through many years.

Line of Descent.

1. Frank Putt = Maude Brugh
2. Levi Putt = Harriette Anstett
3. George Putt = Sarah Ann Getz
4. Nicholas Getz = Elizabeth Palm
5. Dr. Peter Palm = Catherine Schwolley
6. Dr. John Palm = Catherine Salome Fenger

ON ACTIVE SERVICE WITH THE
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

March 28 1919
Le Mans Area.

Dear Friends —

I will write you a few lines while here in Le Mans today (our camp is 6 kilometre - one kilo 5/8 mile) for a meet of games between divisions that are near here. This is the forwarding camps where we get rid of the "cootie" and get feeling better with a view of a gang plank in view in a short time. Our sailing date I heard was in May but it seems rumored we go befor then. I hope the rumors are true as the 1st of May would find us in U.S. if they are true. I have recid your letter of Feb 5 - 1919 and it sure was a welcome as all a slight surprise. Befor reading I could not imagine who it was from but was glad to hear from you may be sure.

You spoke of a letter being returned to you. My Company in the past was C - 30 Eng. but after coming from hospital

I was transfered to G-110 Infantry. So per-haps it went there and as I was not in the company it was returned to you. I have had many letters returned to U.S. the

I hear about later from them.

You said the boys all seemed anxious to get home from the training camps as how about us who have been across the little pond waiting and then waiting for our turn to get on a ship again only this time going westward and at full speed ahead I hope.

This will be all for this time as next time no doubt will be in the U.S. so you need not write in answer to this letter.

Cletus.

Uncle and Aunt.

I will write a few lines this noon while on guard. I am sitting beside a small stove and it is going with fire now; may be warm. I am relieving another guard while he has gone to dinner so as soon as he returns I will get mine. We are doing Military Police and property guard here at the [redacted] for how long as I understand we, 28th Division, may move any time. We are relieved from Army of Occupation so we are not to go further towards Germany or Luxemburg, at least I don't think so, just one regiment is on guard duty as we left the rest (3 den regiments) two days later in back of us. We hear all kinds of rumors as to our next move and to where. Some say to the high seas and some to M.P. (Military Police) duty elsewhere. I will wait and see what comes next hoping to come to coast.

How did Santa Claus visit around Hudson? We had a white Xmas as it snowed the evening of 24th. We also had one around a year before so we have had two snows. The snow is still most on the ground. I have spent two Xmases in the Army now one in the States and one over here. I hope and am sure it is the last for perhaps still the next war if such is possible.

Dec. 29.

I will finish the letter on this Sunday morning here in my billet sitting on my bunk-head writing on a stand. Some place to write instead of aside of a shell hole or in a dugout. I hope soon to write from U.S.A. or at least on a boat started somewhere.

Last Xmas (1917) I was not at your place as you said I should with Helen. I was at Ft. Thomas Ky. instead of Hudson in a suit Uncle Sam gave me to wear. I have had a few suits of the same kind since.

I will close for now wishing you and all the boys of Lucky Nine Europe where I hope to be at present.

A little history on Noble trucks

The once popular Noble Motor Truck was built in Kendallville at the old Trenton Garment building from about 1921 to about 1932.

One of these trucks that was owned by Oscar Nelson Doty was completely destroyed when hit by a train at South Milford. Doty was using the truck to haul cement in the paving of Ind. 3 in September of 1923.

Doty was a grandfather of Paul Rehling and died one day after the accident.

These employees of the early 1920s are the men that helped build the Noble Truck that is the property of Strawser Brothers Construction Company. This truck, a four cylinder Buda model, is often put on display and used in parades. If this truck was a human, it would be old enough to collect Social Security.

The frame and all of the parts were removed and cleaned of rust and reassembled but the mechanical parts are just as they were. The top speed of the truck is about 22 miles an hour but will get up to 28 if going down hill.

Several different people worked on the renewal of the truck including Paul Rehling, a watch and jewelry repairman at Christianson Jewelers.

Marilyn Troyer, the social and activity coordinator at the Kendallville Nursing Home, has a list of activities going on at the home for the month of September that will certainly keep the residents busy.

Wednesday Sept. 16 Girl Scout Troop 194, under the direction of Margaret Van Auken, will be entertained by a square dance group known as the Levis and Lace. The Jeffie, was born Sept. 12, 1886 in LaGrange County. She was married to a Mr. Grey and they lived in Fresno, Calif. Grey died in 1940 and she later she married Hugh Tipton, who died in 1965.

While in California she worked as a bookkeeper at a John Deere Implement Company and also worked in a restaurant.

Mrs. Tipton now lives at the Kendallville Nursing Home on South Main Street in Kendallville. She was known as one who liked ball games and now at the age of 101 she still listens to ball games on the radio. She is a music lover and did a lot of bingo playing. She is very attentive during the newspaper reading sessions, especially anything on current events.

Marilyn Troyer, the social and activity coordinator at the Kendallville Nursing Home, has a list of activities going on at the home for the month of September that will certainly keep the residents busy.

Wednesday Sept. 16 Girl Scout Troop 194, under the direction of Margaret Van Auken, will be entertained by a square dance group known as the Levis and Lace. The Girl Scouts have adopted residents of the home as grandparents who they regularly visit so the evenings entertainment, plus refreshments, is a pay back to the scouts for their kindness.

On Saturday Sept. 19 the home will have a bake sale at the Ames Store to raise funds for the Arthritis Foundation. The sale will start at 9 a.m. Donations of baked goods for the sale are welcome.

There will also be three musical programs presented during the month of September. The people that present these programs donate their time and talent. They are the Corner Stone Singers, The Good Time Band and Larry Boese with his piano key board. It actually sounds more like the operation of a theatre than the operation of a nursing home.

Don Harris, owner of the Kendallville Laundry, is a cry baby. Seems that he never could find his way to the laundry so he moaned and groaned, grumbled and growled. Most everyone knows that Kendallville Laundry is located at 218 West Mitchell. Don also knew this to be a fact but he could never find East Mitchell Street because there was no sign at the corner of Main and Mitchell to tell him where the street was.

It did finally pay Don to be a cry baby. Because of his tears street signs were erected at the corner of Main and Mitchell so now he knows where to make his turn to get to his laundry. Not only is Don now a happy man but

She has three step-children, Marguerite Ritchie, Edward Tipton and Herbert Tipton.

Her birthday was celebrated at the nursing home last Friday.

Those in charge at the nursing home report that Mrs. Tipton is a very kind and patient person who smiles often.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Grateful for Ames support

To the editor:

On behalf of those who have been helped through First Christian Church FISH Organization, we would like to thank the Ames Store for their donation of a portable heater, a child's car seat, and certificates for clothing items.

We were pleased to get a call from the supervisor of Ames in Connecticut. She told us that Ames likes to help out in the communities where they have stores and had chosen the FISH Organization for a donation.

FISH continues to assist people in need. Referal for counseling and other help is possible through FISH.

We ask that businesses and individuals wishing to supply donations of services, funds, or materials, please contact FISH at the First Christian Church in Kendallville.

FISH would also like to thank everyone who made the Klutter Closet a thriving success. We raised needed funds for people in need.

Sincerely,
FISH

Erba Rehling

Erba E. Rehling, 84, 702 Rush St., died 10 p.m. Friday in the Kendallville Nursing Home.

Born Jan. 25, 1898, in Hudson, she was the daughter of Oscar N. and Sarah R. (Putt) Doty. She married Carl P. Rehling June 28, 1922, in Ashley. He preceded her in death in 1978.

Mrs. Rehling resided in Kendallville since 1972 after moving here from Fort Wayne.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Patricia R. Hapner, Rancho Cordova, Calif.; two sons, Paul Rehling, Kendallville, and Donald L. Rehling, Fort Wayne; one sister, Mrs. Laurene Arthur, Libertyville, Ill.; two brothers, Cletus Doty, Peru, and Dale D. Doty, Flossmoor, Ill.; five grandchildren and one step grandchild.

Services will be 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Berhalter-Hutchins Funeral Home with Rev. Paul B. Griebel of St. John Lutheran Church officiating.

Burial will be in Concordia Cemetery, Fort Wayne.

Calling is from 2-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Monday.

The family requests memorials be given to St. John Lutheran Church.

Dear Cousins –

Thank you for the lovely Christmas card and note.

We are really up here in the snow. Carl shouldn't shovel and he won't let me. Our tall grandson Carl (the 6th) came over and shoveled us out. He graduated N. S. in May, don't want to go to college, is a machinist like Paul + great-grandfather, as he has a job in a factory to keep car + motorcycle going. Carl is experienced in electric + gas lines.

Carl isn't feeling too good. Have been going to Doctor. Has arthritis, borderline diabetic + throat bothers him. I have to stay well to help him.

We are having the boys and families for Christmas. Our Donald sold P.A. Rd home + bought a farm East of New Haven on R 30. They had us out for Thanksgiving.

What did you do for Thanksgiving.

You have a wonderful hand-writing. I always write too fast. My mind is ahead of the pen.

I found these announcements in the paper. If you know of them.

Have the best in the South

Love

Esta Rehling

Dear Grandma -

Merry Christmas

Sept. 27, 1971

Dear Sarah –

Seems I cannot sit down long enough to write. Carl will be attending a class one day a week for 4 weeks so maybe I can get to the Library to check family names.

From my mother, it started in Frankenthal Germany, I think. It was from Europe year of 1870, when first Germany controlled the area & then France took it back. Each in would have German teacher & then French again. They came to America by boat & baby was born on board. (George Kimball Jr. had 9 children. He had private (Catholic) [illegible])

1. Charles.
2. Sarah Fatka.
3. George Jr.
4. John Amstutt. — wife Joanna 1844-1922
   son John J 1863-1929 (64)
   Sarah Ann Higbee 1867-1945
   Herman (Lombard)
5. Susan Ringler
6. Elizabeth Parr
7. Caroline Zeich
8. 1 Infant died
9. Harriet Putt

Levi Putt was born 6-24-1840 in Pa. died DeKalb Co. 6-18-1914

Harriet Amstutt born 4-23-1846 - DeKalb Co died 1940 - DeKalb Co. (93 yrs)

Don't know if Putt's mother knew Fatka's or nothing could be. Don't think Putt's were not Roots of Amstutt. Either way I think the Putt living in N part of Garrett.

Right order of Putt children - Susan - Frank - Sarah Ann Lotty (Lottie) & Joanna - called their names first. Just did a summary & Lottie's name was #7. There were DeKalb & Pleasant Lake &

Celebrated a 52nd wedding Anniversary December 31st 1947 Dad took me to Pleasant Lake when a child. I wrote a note but guess they threw it away.

Bernice Reed of Hudson asked me some details of Aunt Ett family but I never written yet. She was Aunt Susan Knight's granddaughter. Caroline Irish left Indiana went to NY City where she was married to Mr Irish. She left a lot of money & property entitled a lawyer of it & contested my part she had cut herself off from the rest & we had no letter to prove relat Ett Pratt wanted to marry Caroline but she refused him, he married Gil Harriett. Ett Doty served in Civil war, his name was cut in stone in circle at Angola by Ett Pratt went west helped people target across California in covered wagons.

John yet to library will see what all I can find out. Special wish there & she said they have a man & a woman there very good on research on the second floor. Lets see if known if they charge for help. Will find out this week, Carl's class in the 9th hrd. I can drive myself to that Library. She is afraid to have me out of his sight since I was held up with a switch-knife by a young girl about 2 years ago & I have been followed & some boy tried to snatch my purse & bag one night. I hope this will help some.

Till I get more news.
Thanks being patient about me

Love

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Harriett Anstett Ancestry

Harriett Anstett was born 23 Sept. 1846 Lancaster Co. Pa. Her parents George Anstett and Susan Stofer were from the Alsace Lorraine area of France. They lived in the village of St. Nicholas near Nancy.

Her father George was a tailor. George, Susan and their two children immegrated to America in 1833. They lived in Pa. where 7 more children were born. They moved to Peru Ind. and are in the 1850 Census Miami Twp.

George made suits for the Indians. The Indians were friendly by day and stole from them at night. Susan tired of this said, "It's time to move."

They moved to Auburn, Ind. where it is said they could stand on their front porch and count the houses in Auburn.

They left Auburn and moved to Fairfield Twp. DeKalb Co. Ind. Their farm accross the road from Levi Putt.

In 1870 George had retired from farming and was living in Steuben Co. Salem Twp.

His son John Anstett who married Johanna Elizabeth Catherine Putt lived on the Anstett farm. Harriett Anstett who married Levi Putt Johanna's brother was accross the road. Both farms had lanes back to their homes.

Harriett lived to be 93 years old and died Helmer Ind. at a nieces home. She is buried in Circle Cemetery, Hudson, Ind.

George Washington Putt

George and his wife Sarah Ann Getz are buried in the Steuben-DeKalb County Line Cemetery. About 1979 I visited this cemetery. It was overgrown and tombstones in poor condition. I took photos.

educated. In 1837 they moved to Lawrence County, Ill., and in 1855 while on a visit to our subject the father died. The mother died in Lawrence County. John Potts lived in Wayne County till 1846, when he moved to De Kalb County, Ind., and bought forty acres of land which is a part of his present farm. To this he has added forty acres, and now has a valuable farm with a good residence and farm buildings. He has been an industrious and enterprising citizen, and has gained the confidence and esteem of the entire community. In 1864 he was elected Magistrate of his township and served twenty years. He is a Democrat in politics. He was married Feb. 6, 1834, to Elinor Metcalf, daughter of Josiah and Hannah Metcalf. To them were born two children—Almira L. died at the age of twenty years; and Hannah E. is the wife of Albert Buchanan. Mrs. Potts died Aug. 25, 1866, and Aug. 18, 1867, Mr. Potts married Maria Shaffer, a native of Westmoreland County, Pa. Mrs. Potts is a member of the Lutheran church.

George Putt, one of the most prosperous and prominent of the early settlers of De Kalb County, was born in Berks County, Pa., Nov. 19, 1814, the eldest son of Jacob and Catharine (Shaffer) Putt, natives of Pennsylvania, of English and German descent. He was reared in his native State, and when fifteen years of age began driving a freight team over the mountains, a vocation he followed fifteen years. About 1835 he settled in Lebanon County, Pa., and in 1841 moved to Stark County, Ohio, and eleven months later, in 1842, came to Indiana and entered forty acres of land, and bought forty more in De Kalb County. It was located in the dense timber, but he went to work and soon had enough cleared to build a log cabin and raise a crop. He has been successful and to his land has added forty acres till now he has 120 acres of choice land, all well improved. He was married Nov. 15, 1835, to Sarah Ann, daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Polm) Getz, natives of Pennsylvania, of German descent. To them were born two children —Levi and Joanna Elizabeth Catharine, wife of John Anstett. Mrs. Putt died Sept. 9, 1884. She, as has also Mr. Putt, had been a member of the German Reform church from her youth. Politically, Mr. Putt is a Democrat.

David Reinochl, deceased, one of the most esteemed pioneers of Fairfield Township, was born in Lebanon County, Pa., Feb. 22, 1809, the eldest of nine children of Michael and Catherine

George Washington Putt

George Washington Putt was born 19 Nov. 1814 Berks Co. Pa. His parents Jacob Putt and Catherine Shaffer.

George was a teamster and probably hauled iron ore for the Robesonion Iron Co. in Berks Co. Pa. Legend is that he drove Conestoga Wagons and helped people moving from Pa. to Ind + Ohio In 1835 he settled in Lebanon Co. Pa. He married Sarah Ann Getz 15 Nov. 1935.

In 1841 he moved to Stark Co. Ohio (Did he go there first because John W. Putt, Ft. Wayne line lived there?) Elven months later in 1842 he came to Fairfield Twp., DeKalb Co. Ind. and "entered" 40 Acres of land that was dense timber. He then bought 40A more and cleared land and built a log cabin, then bought 40 more. 120 Acres in all.

The Putt schoolhouse was built on his land. This was located accross the road from the John Reinoehl farm. Paul Reinoehl's son built a home on the old site 1989 or 1990.

The Frank Putt home where he raised his family was part of this acreage as was the Mose Stomm property and Noah Erwin property. It is beleived that the Erwin house is part of George Putts orginal house - log cabin?

George and his wife Sarah Ann were member of the St. John Reformed Church, Hudson, Ind. They lived the remainder of their lives in DeKalb Co. Ind.

ARCHIVES AND RESEARCH DEPARTMENT
Mrs. LeRoy Sanders, Consultant

In our library we have microfilm copies of records of 70 some churches of Reading and Berks County, as well as cemetery, tax and military records of this area, for visitors to use. While we do not have a master index to the many names found therein, most records have individual indexes. There is a small fee of $2.00 per day for non-members to use our library, which is open 9 A.M. to 2 P.M., Tuesday through Saturday, closed Sundays, Mondays, and holiday weekends. There are special events which sometimes close our library, so we suggest you telephone us before coming to Reading.

Our library and archives staff must devote most of their time to classifying and cataloging accessions. However as time permits we do give the following limited services to those who live outside southeastern Pennsylvania and who cannot come to Reading:

1. Search our special index to the original tax lists of Reading and Berks County 1754-1789 (some years missing) on one name and send xerox copies.

2. Search our original OATH OF ALLEGIANCE OF BERKS COUNTY and/or BERKS COUNTIANS IN THE REVOLUTION for one ancestor and send a certified copy if located.

3. Locate and prepare a certificate, or make a xerox copy, of a baptism (which usually includes date of birth and name of parents); marriage or death of an ancestor from our church records of Reading and Berks County if the name of the church is supplied by the correspondent, or the denomination and township is given in Berks County.

Fee for #1 and #2, of the above limited services is $10.00 each, payable in advance. Fee for #3 is $15.00, payable in advance. Please enclose a legal-size, self-addressed, stamped envelope for mailing report.

Please Note: We have been swamped with genealogical requests this year, and our limited research time is now reserved for months ahead. Therefore, we will be unable to accept checks for new work before October.

We have a copy of the St Daniel's Church records on our collection. We enclose a membership folder.

GSA FORM 6751 (REV. 3-72)

EXPLANATION OF ORDER FOR PHOTOCOPIES

Use this form to order photocopies of records of veterans who served in the United States or Confederate armed forces. These records include:

Pension application files based on United States (not State) service before World War I.

NOTE: Pensions based on military service for the Confederate States of America were authorized by some Southern States but not by the Federal Government until 1959. Inquiries about State pensions should be addressed to the State archives or equivalent agency at the capital of the veteran's State of residence after the war.

Bounty-land warrant application files based on United States (not State) service before 1856.

NOTE: Pension or bounty-land warrant application files usually include an official statement of the veteran's military or naval service, as well as information of a personal or genealogical nature. If we find such a file, we send copies of the documents we think will be most useful to you.

Military service records based on service in the United States Army (officers who served before June 30, 1917, enlisted men before October 31, 1912), Navy (officers and enlisted men who served before 1886), Marine Corps (officers and enlisted men who served before 1896), and Confederate armed forces (1861-65). (We cannot provide photocopies of files for veterans whose service terminated less than 75 years ago, however we are usually able to provide certain information from the files.)

NOTE: Military service records rarely contain family information. The record of a man's service in any one organization is entirely separate from the record of his service in any other organization. We are ordinarily unable to accurately establish the identity of men of the same name who served in different organizations. If you know that a man served in more than one organization and you desire copies of his military service record, submit a separate form for the service record in each organization.

DO NOT use this form to request photocopies of records relating to service in World Wars I or II or subsequent service. Write to: National Personnel Records Center, GSA, (Military Personnel Records), 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63132.

More information about armed service records may be found in our free Genealogical Information Kit.

Send the completed form to the address on the front of the form. When you send more than one form at a time, each order will be handled separately; you may not receive all your replies at the same time.

When we find numerous files for the veteran, we suggest that you visit the National Archives and examine the various files, or hire a professional researcher to examine the files for you. The Board for Certification of Genealogists, 1307 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036, can provide you with the names of persons in the Washington area willing to do research for a fee.

Jacob Putt

Jacob Putt, native of Germany came to America when he was fifteen years old. Berks Co. Pa. History It is quite likely that he came with his parents. Also that his father was related to the Benjamin Putt that lived in Maryland. Benjamin's son John W. who married Mary Wiest moved to Stark Co. Ohio. John was born in Washington Co. Md., married Mary Wiest in Stark Co. Ohio. John W. was a Wagon Maker in Stark Co. He moved to Allen Co. Ind. Ca. 1853 and was a farmer

Jacob worked as a teamster hauling charcoal and iron ore. All of his sons followed him in the same business. (Believe this to be the Robesonia Iron Co. Berks Co. Pa.)

Jacob and his wife Catherine Shaffer died in Berks Co. Pa and are buried at St Daniel's Corner Church, Berks Co. Pa.

Montgomery, Morton R. Berks County, Pennsylvania. 2 vols. Chicago: J. H. Beers, & Co., 1906. p. 733. Jacob Putt 16

With his family he belonged to the Reformed congregation at Yocom's Union Church.

On May 4, 1854, Mr. Schnabel married Catherine White, daughter of John R. and Elizabeth (Mengel) White, and to this union were born four children: James, born Nov. 12, 1855; Clara, May 30, 1858 (m. Dec. 31, 1887, John S. Sonnon); John W., March 12, 1860 (died March 21, 1860); and a son died in infancy unnamed.

JAMES SPEARS, an aged citizen of Robesonia, Berks Co., Pa., was born near Glasgow, Scotland, Sept. 15, 1833, a son of William and Christie (Kirkwood) Spears.

William Spears was born near Glasgow, about 1793, and died in 1843 surviving his wife by some few years. He was a weaver by trade. They had seven children: William, James, Alexander, Christie, Jennie, Mary and Ellen. With the exception of Alexander all the children emigrated to America. James came alone, the five others having preceded him by one year. They all lived at Moselem, in Berks county. William was taken prisoner and died in the Civil war. Jennie married Jacob Warner, of Womelsdorf, and still survives. Christie married James McCallen and they lived at Fritztown, Berks county, where she died. Mary married Horatio Hillesley and lives at Manayunk, Pa. Ellen lives at Philadelphia.

James Spears learned weaving with his father, in his native land, where he followed the trade for a short time before coming to America. This was in 1853, during the administration of President Franklin Pierce. He settled in Berks county and began to work in the mines at Moselem, where he lived for four years. In the spring of 1859 he came to Robesonia and began working at the Robesonia Iron Company's plant, where he continued until his retirement in 1901, since then he has occupied his pleasant home on Elm street. During his long connection with the iron works he was variously employed in almost every department, being a good mechanic and a regular handy man.

Mr. Spears is a veteran of the Civil war. He enlisted at Reading, in February, 1865, in Company A, 99th Pennsylvania Volunteers, and served until the close of the war, being honorably discharged after four months of service.

On Aug. 16, 1862, Mr. Spears was married to Elizabeth Yonson, born March 16, 1838, in Heidelberg township, Berks county, daughter of Henry and Catherine (Mayer) Yonson. Mr. and Mrs. Spears have two children, Leah and William. The daughter married Joseph Putt and they reside at Robesonia; they have one son, James H. S. The son married Priscilla Putt, and they have two children, Jennie and James.

GEORGE PUTT, foreman of the ore roasters at the Robesonia Iron Company's plant, was born near Robesonia, in Heidelberg township, Berks Co., Pa., Aug. 7, 1862; son of Joseph and Catherine (Brigel) Putt.

Jacob Putt, his grandfather, was a native of Germany, and came to Berks county when he was fifteen years of age. He worked as a teamster, hauling charcoal and iron ore for many years, and all of his sons followed the same business. He lies buried at St. Daniel's (Corner) Church. His sons were: Joseph, George, Thomas, Jacob, Henry, Franklin, Levi and Frederick. His daughters were: Sophia married Adam Deppen; Susan married (first) Elijah Hassler and (second) John Leninger; Peggy married a Mr. Heckler; Sarah died unmarried.

Joseph Putt, father of George, resided in the house in which the latter was born, in Heidelberg township, for nearly fifty years. He followed teaming as a business. He married Catherine Brigel, daughter of Adam and Barbara (Weinhold) Brigel. Mr. and Mrs. Putt have long since passed away and are interred at Womelsdorf. They had the following children: Frank, who was killed at the battle of Cold Harbor, while fighting in defense of his country; Charles, who lives at Garrett, Ind.; Joseph, who is assistant foreman at the Robesonia Iron Company; Jacob, a farmer residing near Garrett, Ind.; William, who is in the employ of the Robesonia Iron Company; Sarah, who was accidentally burned to death in childhood; Ellen I., married to Charles P. Mayer, who is stove tender for the Robesonia Iron Company; and George.

George Putt left school at a very early age in order to commence work at the furnace, beginning to be self-supporting in 1878, and has continued with the Robesonia Iron Company. He has proved himself such a reliable, steady and efficient employe that he has had substantial recognition of his usefulness at various times, and in 1887 he was appointed foreman of the ore roasters, having a gang of twenty-six men under his charge. In politics he is a Republican, and although he lives in a strong Democratic district he was elected school director in the spring of 1902, in which office he served for three years. He has filled other positions, having been township committeeman for two years, and on different occasions has been chosen a delegate to county conventions. He is a member of Washington Camp, No. 67, P. O. S. of A., of Womelsdorf, and of Lodge No. 119, Knights of Pythias, of Robesonia.

In 1886 Mr. Putt was married to Fianna Achenbach, born April 6, 1864, a daughter of Levi and Mary (Putt) Achenbach, the former of whom is a stone-mason in Mill Creek township. Mr. and Mrs. Putt have three children, Jennie M.; Maggie M., who married Howard Flickinger, a clerk at Robesonia; and Irwin. Mr. Putt and his family reside in their own home on Main street, Robesonia, which he bought in 1900. With his family he belongs to St. Paul's Reformed Church, in which he is a deacon. He was a liberal contributor to the erection of this handsome church edifice in 1903.

JOSEPH PUTT, foreman of the laborers at the Robesonia Iron Company's plant at Robesonia, was born Oct. 25, 1852, in his father's house in Heidelberg township. He is a son of Joseph Putt. He obtained his education at the Furnace school-house in his native township, but was only ten years old when he began work at the Robesonia Furnace, and he has been working regularly in the same employ ever since, being one of the company's oldest and most reliable employes. He has charge of the labor force of fifty men, a position he has filled since 1904. He is a Republican in politics, and on different occasions has been a delegate to county conventions.

On Aug. 13, 1887, he was married to Leah Spears, a daughter of James and Elizabeth (Yonson) Spears, and they have one son, James H. S., who is a young man of fine educational attainments. He was educated in the township schools, graduated from the Robesonia high school, later attended two spring sessions at the West Chester Normal School and still later graduated from the Inter-State Commercial College, Reading. Mr. Putt resides in his own home on Elm street, Robesonia, which he purchased in the spring of 1902. Fraternally he belongs to Washington Camp, No. 37, P. O. S. of A., of Robesonia, of which he has been a trustee since 1899; and to the Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 119, of which he is past chancellor commander. He is a Reformed member of Zion's Church of Womelsdorf. Mrs. Putt was reared in the Presbyterian faith, her parents belonging to the First Presbyterian Church. She is connected with St. Daniel's (Corner) Church.

GEORGE K. HOLLENBACH. Among the successful business men of Reading, Pa., may be mentioned George K. Hollenbach, who is engaged in painting and paper-hanging, and in the sale of wall paper, paints and picture and room mouldings at No. 325 Elm street.

Anstett reunion held in Hudson

Fifty descendents of George and Susan Anstett gathered for a reunion at the fellowship hall in Hudson recently. The Anstetts, natives of France and Germany, came to the United States in 1833. They moved to DeKalb and Steuben Counties in the 1850s.

Those attending from Indiana were Mrs. Loie Krebs, Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Forst, Kendallville; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ringler, Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ringler, Pleasant Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lochner, Snow Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gantt, Lake-of-the-Woods; Mrs. Inez Enfield, Pleasant Lake; Paul Strawser, Fort Wayne; Rollie Alleshouse, Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spencer, Garrett; Mrs. Mazie Schaffer, Fremont; and Pauline King, Waterloo.

Also present from Indiana were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rensch, Butler; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ringler, Goshen; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe, Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. John Crone, Angola; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nichols and daughter Angel, Fort Wayne; and Linda Hughes, Hudson.

Family members also came from Michigan, Ohio and Illinois.

The last Anstett reunion had been held at Auburn in 1942.

Dear Mrs. Neese,

Sorry to be so long answering your letter. Since doing the typed sheets and reading again your lineage I found that my great great grandparents were Nicolas (written thusin record) Getz ~~nee~~ (no dates given except as typed for great grandparents,) married Elizabeth Palm a daughter of Peter Palm. You have them also listed under George Dutt and Sarah Ann Getz. So many first names alike on the generations. Perhaps sometime we can talk over your lineage together.

Sincerely
Carrie B. Holcomb

Carrie Holcomb

ALBION — Carrie M. Holcomb, 90, Route 4, Albion, died at 9:40 a.m. Sunday in McCray Memorial Hospital, Kendallville, following a four-month illness.

She was born Sept. 14, 1897 in Garrett, the daughter of Charles and Catherine (Putt) Wheeler. On June 1, 1935 in South Bend, she married Thurlow C. Holcomb, who survives.

Mrs. Holcomb moved to Albion from South Bend 53 years ago. She was a retired school teacher having taught in South Bend and Noble County schools. She was a member of the American Red Cross, Farm Bureau, Mental Health Association, Camera Club, local and state teachers and retired teachers associations, Women's Club and Asbury United Methodist Church.

Her husband is her only survivor.

Services at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Brazzell Funeral Home, Albion, with Rev. Kenneth Foulke and Rev. Evelyn Myers officiating.

Burial will be in Christian Chapel Cemetery, Merriam.

Visitation is from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Preferred memorials are to Noble County Heart Fund.

NICHOLAS GETZ

INFORMATION EXTRACTED FROM ESTATE PAPERS OF NICHOLAS GETZ

6 August 1833 – Elizabeth PALM Getz gives up the notion of being an administrator of the estate of Nicholas Getz. Christian Koch will act.

8 August 1833 – Another renunciation, formally written. Signed by Elizabeth Getz, witnessed by John Palm and Joseph Palm.

24 August 1833 – Inventory of estate - $463.12 1/2

8 November 1833 - John Koch appointed guardian for Sarah Getz, "a minor above the age of 14."

8 November 1833 – Joseph Palm appointed guardian of William Getz, "a minor above the age of 14 years."

11 November 1833 – The court appointed Peter Weitzel guardian of Isaac Getz.
The court appointed Joseph Palm guardian of Louisa Getz.
The court appointed John Palm guardian of Franklin Getz. (All three were minors under 14.)

11 November 1833 – Petition of Christian Koch –

That the said intestate died on the ____ day of March 1833 leaving a wife named Elizabeth and six children to wit —Mary – Sarah – William – Franklin – Isaac and an infant – five of whom are minors – and seized of 25 acres 86 perches of land in Cumru Twp. bounded by lands of John Gerber, Henry & Dieter Wardholl, Peter Bending and John Sharman, and the undivided half bounded by the lands of Samuel Bell, Isaac Hain and others of fifty acres of woodland in Cumru Twp. – and a lot at Sinking Spring containing an acre and a half of ground – on which is erected a one story log hou se – that the personal estate is insufficient to pay the debts and maintain the minor children as appears by this inventory and statement forthwith presented. Your petitioner therefore prays that the court will order that the said twenty five acres and 86 perches and the said undivided half of the 50 acres of woodland be sold for the payment of debts and the maintenance of the minor children.

Personal property appraised at	$463
Real Estate
25 acres 86 perches cost	1200
House & lot at Sinking Spring	1300
Woodland	400

Debts due and owing by intestate at the time of his death $866.50

11 November 1833 – Christian Koch and Frederick Koch of Heidelberg Township were bonded for $2,000 to sell the property of Nicholas Getz, dec'd, 25 acres and 86 perches in Cumru Twp. and the undivided half of fifty acres of woodland in Cumru Twp.

FROM - CAROLYN CRIPE
DEC, 30, 1999

(The 25 acres and 86 perches were sold to Absolem Ruth for $1400. In 1834, the woodland was sold to Samuel Addams for $635.40, but, of course, only half of this amount went to the estate.)

14 June 1834 – The house and lot were appraised at $1050

8 August 1834. Christian Koch, Henry _____ of Heidelberg Twp. and Joseph Palm and John Koch also of Heidelberg were bonded for $3000 to sell a house and lot at Sinking Spring in Cumru Twp. (The lot was bounded by lands of John Ludwig, the Sinking Spring schoolhouse, and the turnpike.)

1834 – The house and lot were sold to the highest bidder William Spohn for $1350.

26 August 1835 – Mentioned in accounting "Cash received of John Hain administrator of Nicholas Getz, the elder, dec'd. £425. (I believe this to be Nicholas' father, who died in 1822.)

27 March 1840 – Petition from Elizabeth saying that John Koch, guardian of Franklin Getz has never made an accounting of his guardianship, that he is of intemperate habits and is wasting and mismanaging the estate and property under his charge and is likely to prove insolvent. He should render an account and be discharged from his guardianship. Ditto for Peter Weitzel.

5 August 1840 – Peter Weitzel and John Koch petitioned to be discharged as guardians of Nicholas F. Getz and Isaac Getz. (One son is sometimes referred to as Franklin and sometimes as Nicholas F.) (I believe their uncle Francis Palm took over.)

5 April 1844 – Petition of Joseph Palm guardian of Louisa Getz for discharge. Francis Palm appointed guardian.

1850 - Francis made account of his guardianship of Nicholas F.

1852 – Francis made account of his guardianship of Isaac.

10 July 1854 – Francis Palm made account of his guardianship of Louisa, now intermarried with John Ulm.

(I found no further records for Sarah and William.)

13 September 1856 – Guardianship bond of Richard Wenrich, guardian of Catharine Koch, a minor child of Christian Koch, late of Lower Heidelberg Twp. (This is included because Christian Koch was not only the administrator of the estate, but he was also married to Mary Getz, eldest child of Nicholas and Elizabeth. Apparently, he died in 1856.)

These biographical accounts all give much the same meager information in referring to Nicholas Getz:

Fox - Vol. II, p. 71.

> "The Getz family is of German origin, and Mr. Getz James K. is the fifth generation in direct descent of John Getz, the pioneer in America. John Getz was born in the Rheinpfalz District of Germany, and receiving a grant of land from King George of England, he settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Nicholas Getz, son of the pioneer, became a resident of Berks County early in life, and until his death was a prominent and successful farmer in this Section. He married here, and here his children grew to manhood and womanhood, filling useful positions in life. Jacob Getz, son of Nicholas Getz, was born in Berks County . . .. Jacob Getz married Hannah Soder . . .. Hiram S. Getz, a son of Jacob, and fourth in descent in America, was born in Sunbury, Pennsylvania, 11 April 1822."

Fox - Vol. III, p. 242.

> "Nicholas Getz, grandfather of Mr. Getz Peter D. , lived on a farm in Cumru Township . . .. John Getz, son of Nicholas Getz, was born in Cumru Township . . . .. Peter D. Getz, son of John Getz, was born 11 September 1832 on the farm owned by his father in Cumru Township.

Montgomery - p. 339.

> Repeats almost verbatim the same information given above.

Biographical Sketches - p. 608.

> "James K. Getz was born in Berks County, 19 January 1848. He is of German descent, and the first of his ancestors to come to this country located in Lancaster, Pennsylvania in 1734. His paternal great-grandfather, Nicholas Getz, a son of John Getz, was born in that county and followed farming. Jacob Getz, the grandfather of our subject, was born in Berks County.

All of the above mentions only two children of Nicholas Getz (son of John) -- Jacob Getz and John Getz. One other reference noted elsewhere mentions a daughter, Susan Getz. There certainly were other children -- the census data would indicate another son, Nicholas. These biographical sketches also fail to make any refernce to a date of birth or death of Nicholas or his wife's name.

and then began to turn his attention to America, making arrangements to dispose of his property. He set sail July 11, 1730, on the ship "Patience," arriving in New York Saturday morning, Aug. 11, 1730. Locating in a small town known as Springfield, now one of the wards of Elizabeth, N. J., he remained a few years, and then removed with his family to Ephrata, Pa., where he practised medicine for a few years, and in 1761 bought from Conrad Raish 1000 acres of ground, laying out a town known as Palmyra, Lebanon county, then Lancaster county. He practised his profession until May 5, 1777, when he engaged his services to the Colonial Government as surgeon. He was on General Greene's staff, and was prominent at the battle of Brandywine Creek, Sept. 11, 1777, and related quite often how Gen. George Washington came up to his army riding upon a white horse. After the battle of Brandywine he helped remove the wounded to Ephrata in ox carts to the Cloister, where he gave them every attention until December, 1777, and then resumed his practice again in Palmyra. He was married, after being a widower, to Elizabeth Williams, by whom he had no children. He died April 25, 1799, and lies buried at Binnagies Church.

Dr. William Palm, grandson of Dr. John, was a prominent practising physician and surgeon for many years in Sinking Spring and vicinity. He was born at that place Dec. 22, 1789, and there married Elizabeth Hepler. Twelve children were born to this union: Catherine, William, Elizabeth, John, Julian, Isaac, Henrietta, Charles, Franklin, Henry, Susan and Mary Ann the last named being the only member of this family now living.

Charles Palm, father of Milton S., was born at Sinking Spring, Berks county, and was educated in the schools of the township. When a young man he engaged in the manufacture of proprietary medicine, in which business he became very successful, becoming well known throughout this section of the country. Mr. Palm was married to Anna, daughter of Samuel Bast, of Kutztown, Pa., and two children were born to this union: Susan, who died in 1868; and Milton S., of Reading. In June, 1863, Charles Palm enlisted in Company C, 42nd Pa. V. I., serving therewith until Aug. 11, 1863, and receiving his honorable discharge. He died March 8, 1886, aged sixty-three years, his wife surviving until Feb. 16, 1896, when she passed away, aged eighty years.

Milton S. Palm received his education in the schools of Reading, and when a young man read law with J. S. Richards, passing the examination successfully at the age of nineteen years, but on account of his youth could not be admitted to the Bar. He accepted a position with W. N. Coleman in the insurance business, with the intention of remaining with him until he had reached his majority, and then to gain his admission to the Bar. The insurance business proved so successful, however, that he continued therein with Mr. Coleman until Oct. 11, 1890, and since that time on his own account. He has been very successful in this line, and at the present time represents some of the leading insurance companies in the country.

In 1870 Mr. Milton S. Palm was united in marriage with Rose Engle, and one son, Myron Raymond, has been born to this union, he now being engaged with the Reading Iron Company. Mr. Palm is a member of the Lutheran Church. Mrs. Palm died July 1, 1907.

Mr. Palm is a gentleman of pleasing personality, and is a very brilliant conversationalist, having in stock an endless number of stories and reminiscences, amusing and interesting. The following was related to Mr. Palm in 1873, by Dr. Christian Ritter: "Early in the morning of Oct. 2, 1793, I left Oley township in company with a number of residents on horse-back for Reading. We all dismounted at the corner of Washington and Fifth street, known then as Callowhill and Thomas streets, at 8:30 a. m. We followed back of George Washington and escort across the Schuylkill river, and then by the King's Highway making our first stop with Dr. Peter Palm, Sinking Spring, at 9:30 a. m. The Doctor invited the party in and there in the house a toast was given to President Washington and his escort, all partaking of the 'red-eye' and lime stone water, President Washington sitting at the extreme left of the settee. At the hour of ten they pursued their way to Binckley's, a few miles further and under the spacious trees they dismounted to see the venerable Binckley. At 10:30 o'clock they galloped their steeds towards the Mid-Way House, now known as Womelsdorf, reaching there at high noon and took part in a lunch, served at Stouch's Inn. At 2:00 p. m. the party and the General left for Stitzstown, now Lebanon, and the Reading and Oley participants returned, after hurrahs and salutes."

EDWARD EGELMAN HAFER, engaged as a photographer at Reading for upward of thirty years, was born in 1843, near Belleman's Church, in Centre township, Berks county, and when a year old his parents removed to Reading where they resided until 1853. And after the death of the father the family removed to Reading. Edward E. Hafer was given a common school education in the local schools and then placed in the drug store of his uncle, H. W. Bergner, at No. 834 Penn street, where he continued for sixteen years. Having become inclined towards portrait painting in this time, he engaged in painting portraits for two years, and secured a position in the photographic studio of Capt. F. M. Yeager, where he carried on the study of photography in connection with painting. After spending two years, 1872-1874, in this studio, he purchased the business, and has since conducted it in a very successful manner. During this time he has painted portraits on special orders, among the last having been the portrait of "Kuechler at his Roost," for which he was given much praise.

Mr. Hafer was married to Amanda Nagel, daughter of William Nagel, of Pottstown, and they had six children: Minerva (m. Samuel S. Finley, who is conducting a large photographic studio at Chicago, Ill.); Bess Mable; Carl Egelman; and three died in infancy.

His father, Daniel Hafer, was born in 1809 in Maxatawny township, and brought up on a farm. He then carried on farming in the township named, and in Centre township. He died in 1853. He was married to Charlotte Egelman, daughter of Charles F. Egelman, of Reading, who was recognized as one of the greatest astronomical calculators of the United States in his day. She died in 1885, aged seventy-six years. They had eleven children: Charles (m. Helena Heckman); Mary Etta (m. John Herflicker); John (m. Susan Armpriester); Rosetta (m. Edward Muench); Daniel (m. Susan Dusen); Wilhelmina (m. Jacob Schwalb); Edward Egelman; Anna (m. Charles Fisher); and three died young.

Mr. Hafer's grandfather was John Hafer, a stone mason and farmer who carried on business in Alsace and Exeter townships. He died in 1853. He was married to Gertrude Kline, daugther of Henry Kline, of Alsace township, and they had nine children: George, Daniel, William, Sarah (m. Abraham Wean), John, Matthias, Henry, Anna (m. Samuel Romig) and Levi.

His great-grandfather was Matthias Hafer, who emigrated in 1773, from Alsace, on the borders of the Rhine in Germany, and settled in Alsace township, Berks county, one mile east of Reading, where he carried on farming until his decease. He was married to Julia Schmid, and they had eight children, seven sons and one daughter: John, Matthias, George, Benjamin, Isaac, Daniel, Henry and Maria (m. to Jacob Hill).

CHARLES FREDERICK EGELMAN, the maternal grandfather of Mr. Hafer, was born at Osnabrück, in Hanover, Dec. 12, 1782, and emigrated to this country in 1802, landing at Baltimore. He learned the trade of coach maker and remained there for a time, when he removed to Berks county, Pa. His last piece of work executed there was the body of a coach for Jerome Bonaparte. He was afterward engaged at teaching for a number of years, officiating in this time also as organist for several German Churches in country districts. About 1830 he settled in Reading and assisted in the publication of a German newspaper, entitled Der Readinger Democrat. He was re-

After the death of his first wife Mr. Hagy was married (second) to Sally Ann Ebling, born in 1831 in Longswamp township, Berks county, daughter of David and Polly (Taller) Ebling, and widow of David Francis. No children were born to the second union. In religious belief Mr. Hagy was a Methodist, while his widow is a member of the Reformed Church.

CHARLES T. RAAB, the genial proprietor of the "Hotel Exeter," at Reading, was born March 30, 1871, at Tresco, Pa., son of George and Savannah (Hopf) Raab.

George Raab, father of Charles T., is a well-known resident of Reading and carries on a shoemaking business, residing at No. 1256 North Tenth street. He was born July 26, 1836, in Wittenberg, Germany, near Elwangen, and came to America when he was eighteen years of age. In September, 1854, he landed in the city of New York and subsequently traveled through a number of the States of the Union, New York, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, and then located for a time in Carbon county, Pa. In 1873 he came to Reading and worked for a short time in the rolling mills but has mainly followed shoemaking. He owns his comfortable home. In 1862 he married Savannah Hopf, a daughter of John Hopf, of Saxeweimar, Germany. Mrs. Raab came to America in her tenth year with her widowed mother. John Raab, an older brother of George Raab, was the first of the Raab family to come to America and his son, George J. Raab is a well-known citizen of Reading. The children of George Raab and wife were the following: George, residing in Reading; John, who died aged one year; Mary, m. to John Warner, of Reading; Carrie, m. to Newton Obenheiser, of Reading; Charles T.; Minnie, m. to Edward O'Brien, of Reading; and Joseph, living in Reading.

Charles T. Raab attended school in boyhood near his home, but he was small when he became self-supporting, going to work in a cigar factory in his native place, and after completing his apprenticeship he worked at that trade for twenty years. In 1873 he accompanied his parents to Reading, where the larger part of his life has been spent although he has lived in other places, spending two years at work at his trade in Chicago and one year in New York State. For two years he conducted a restaurant at his present place of business, and started his hotel in the spring of 1908, being one of the two new licensed men in this line in the city. He is also one of the four business men to whom was granted a license in the county. These facts prove how entirely Mr. Raab enjoys the confidence of his fellow citizens. He gives a careful oversight to his hotel, residing in it himself, and continues some features of his restaurant. He is a member of the Marion Fire Company.

In 1896, Mr. Raab was married to Elizabeth Bauer, daughter of Gottlieb Bauer.

MILTON S. PALM, who is carrying on an insurance business at No. 38 North Third street, Reading, Pa., was born Jan. 4, 1851, at Sinking Spring, son of Charles and Anna (Bast) Palm, and a descendant of one of this section's early settlers.

Dr. John Palm was born July 25, 1713, son of Mathias and Savilla Palm, in Heilsbronn, near Nuremberg, Germany. In 1739 he took up his residence at Backnang, near Stuttgart, and was married to Christiana Dorothy Kern. He studied medicine and was given a diploma from the Medical College of Physicians and Surgeons of Berlin in 1743. He practised medicine in Germany until 1749,

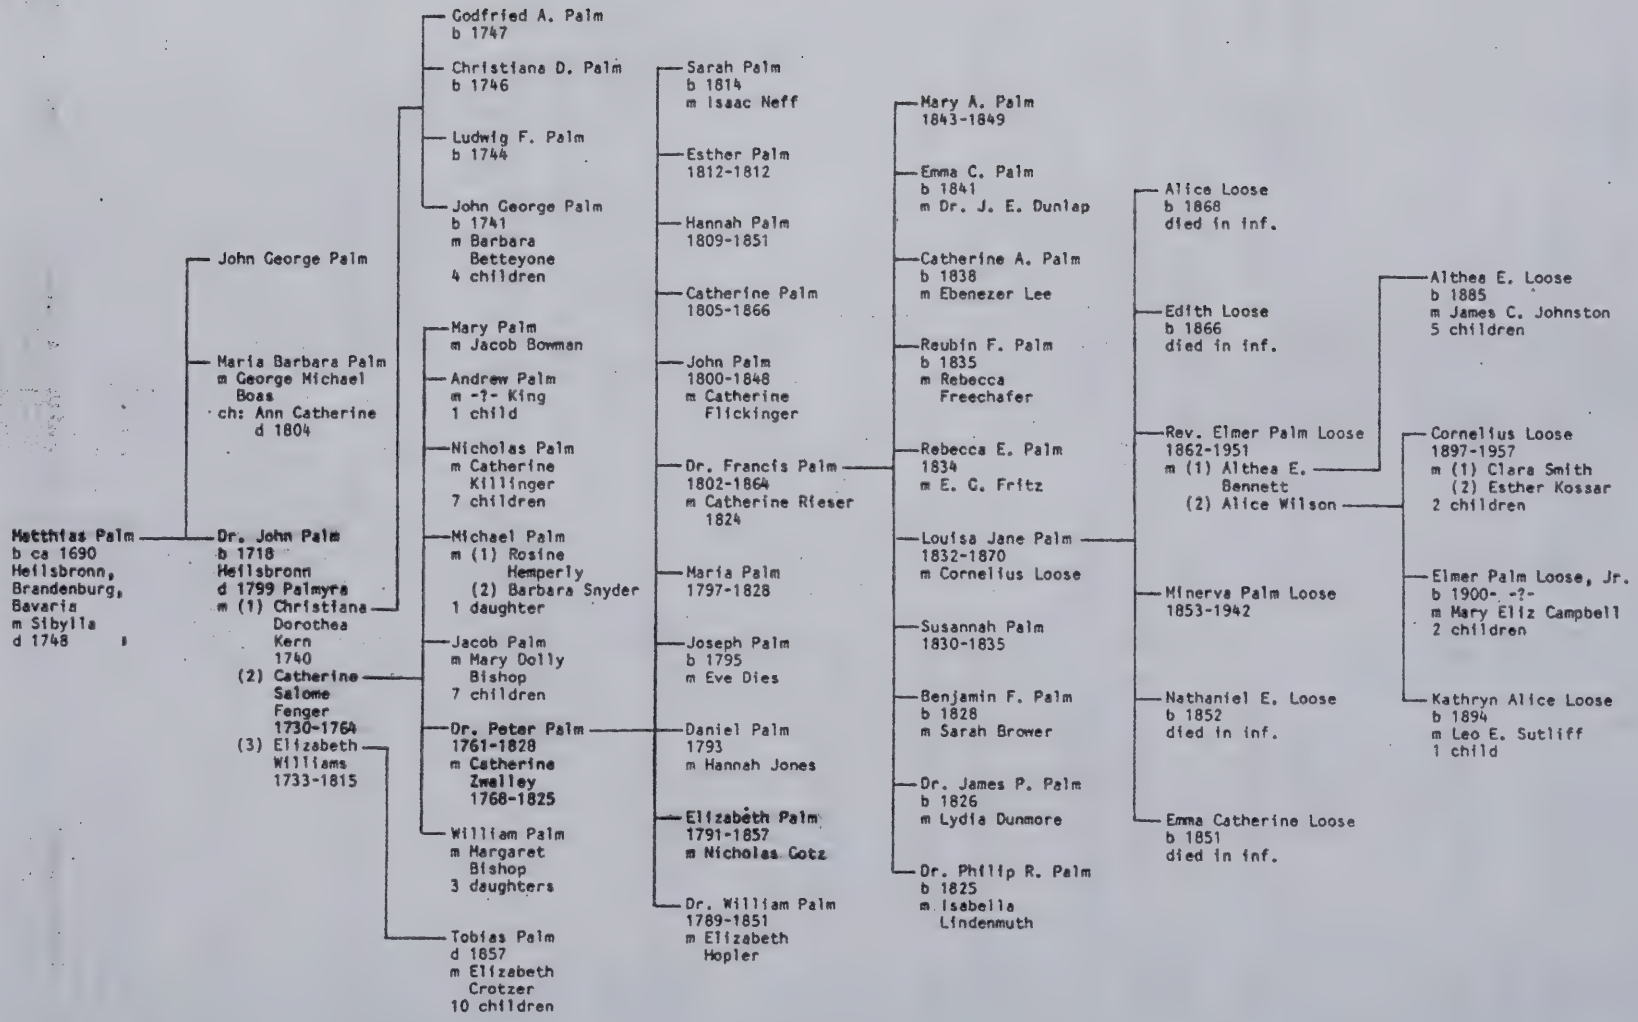
OUR PALM ANCESTRY



PUTT ANCESTRY PALM-GETZ

Dr. Peter and Catherine (Zwaley) Palm had the eleven children listed above. Catherine Zwaley was born in Shafferstown, Lebanon County, Pa., and died in Sinking Springs, Berks County, Pa. She was baptized 22 Aug 1769. Catherine had two brothers: Thomas Zwaley (b 30 Jul 1767, baptized 3 Mar 1771) and Johannes Zwaley (b 17 Oct 1770, baptized 3 Mar 1771). Catherine Zwaley was the daughter of Johanas Zwoley (various spellings) and Anna Catharine Schaffer (daughter of Michael Schaffer) who were married October 20, 1765 (Pa. Archives 1752-1786, Book 1, 6th Series—Marriages and Baptisms of the Rev. John Waddschmidt).

Dr. Peter Palm, removed with his father to Lebanon Township, Lancaster (now Lebanon) County, Pa., about the year 1766. He commenced reading medicine with his father, about the year 1778. From him, he received a good practical medical education. There being no medical schools excepting the Philadelphia College and the University of Pennsylvania (which was then just struggling into existence), he had to rely mostly on the facilities found in his father's extensive laboratory and library, and teachings. He moved to Sinking Springs, Cumru Township, Berks County, Pa., probably about the year 1785, and practiced medicine for forty-odd years. He had an extensive practice and enjoyed the confidence of all who knew him. Like his father, he prepared most of his own medicines, using extensively those of the vegetable kingdom. At the death of his father he fell heir to all his books, medicines and office fixtures. He was about 5 ft. 9 inches high and had gray eyes. He was possessed of a strong and robust constitution. He died March 31, 1828.

Dr. Peter Palm's Siblings

Dr. Peter Palm was one of twelve children of Dr. John Palm. By his first wife, Christiana Dorothea Kern (b 1 Jul 1709 in Backnang, Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Germany, died between 1747 and 1754) who was the daughter of Jacob Andrew Kern, Dr. John Palm had:

1. John George Palm (b 28 Jul 1741 in Backnang) who married Barbara Betteyone. John George and Barbara (Betteyone) Palm had one son and three daughters, including Sara Palm (1780-1869) who married James Gustin (1776-1842) in 1797. Their other children lived in Tuscarora Valley, Juniata County, Pennsylvania. Dr. John and Christiana (Kern) Palm had three other children who died in infancy.

2. Ludwig Frederick Palm (b 31 Mar 1744).

3. Christiana Dorothea Palm (b 29 Jan 1746).

4. Gottfried Andrew Palm (b 22 May 1747).

Subsequently, Dr. John Palm married Catherine Solome Fenger (born in Germany about 1730, buried at Bintennagel's Church, Pa., 1764) by whom he had seven children:

The children of Philip Rieser, Jr., were:

1. John Rieser was born 3 Jul 1791. Died quite young in Bern Township, Pa.)

2. Samuel Rieser was born 19 Sep 1788, died near Leesport, 30 May 1869.

3. Jacob Rieser was born 3 Oct 1786, died at Bernville, Berks County, Pa., about 1858 or 1859.

4. Susannah Rieser was born in Lower Bern Township, Berks County, Pa., 4 Jan 1793. She was married to David Keim. She died 9 Oct 1876 aged 83 years, 9 months, 5 days.

5. Elizabeth Rieser was born about the year 8 Nov 1795, being about two years younger than Mrs. Keim. She was married to William Runkle, and lives at Bernville, Pa. She died 13 May 1885.

6. Catharine Rieser was born 7 Dec 1799. She was married to Dr. Francis Palm, died 2 Jan 1862. Aged 62 years, 1 month, 13 days.

7. Mary Rieser was born 18 Jan 1803, being ten years younger than Mrs. Keim. She was married to Daniel Trout. Mary died 4 Jan 1879 at Saint Clair Schuylkill County, Pa.

Most of the facts in relation to the Rieser family were derived from Mrs. David Keim.

Dr. Peter Palm (1761-1828)

The father of Dr. Francis Palm was Dr. Peter Palm (b 18 Feb 1761 near Elizabeth, N.J., d 31 Mar 1828 at Sinking Springs, Berks County, Pa.) who married on 18 Aug 1789 Catherine Zwalley/Zwaley/Schwalley/Achwalley/etc. (b 1768, d 24 Jan 1825).

Mr. Charles Palm, grandson of Dr. John Palm, is a gentleman of pleasing personality and is a very brilliant conversationalist, having in stock an endless number of stories and reminiscences, amusing and interesting. The following was related to Mr. Palm in 1873 by Dr. Christian Ritter: "Early in the morning of October 2, 1794, I left Oley Township in company with a number of residents on horseback for Reading. We dismounted at the corner of Washington and Fifth Street, known then as Callowhill and Thomas Streets, at 8:30 A.M. We followed back of George Washington and escort across the Schuylkill River, and then by the King's Highway, making our first stop with Dr. Peter Palm, Sinking Springs, at 9:30 A.M. The Doctor invited the party in and there in the house a toast was given to President Washington and his escort, all partaking of the 'Red-Eye' and lime stone, President Washington setting at the extreme left of the settee."

adoption of by-laws, saying precisely what these men, in fact all the incorporators, thought was originally included in the charter. After a full discussion, the latter course was adopted. But the court has decided that this could not be done.

And yet there is one provision of the charter which seems to show very clearly that these men intended precisely what William Early always said they intended to do. The provision is this, that if in making repairs there should not be enough money on hand to meet the outlay, an assessment should be laid pro rata on the lots of the shareholders the same as on the simple lotholders. Now does any one suppose that if the lotholders were in absolute control they would fail to impose an assessment on the shareholders and tax only themselves. That certainly could not and would not be expected. But any one can readily perceive that if the shareholders had control, they might say: We not only paid our lots as the rest have done, but we paid $300.00 each besides that. That should be assessment enough, i. e., eighteen dollars per annum.

We will not go into the details of any unpleasant controversies. We dismiss the subject with the single suggestion, that if Palmyra should continue to grow in the next fifty years as it has in those just passed, and become a town of 15,000 to 35,000, the cemetery could hardly remain where it now is, occupying some of the finest building sites of the town. To whom would it revert? The lotholders certainly do not own it for anything but burial purposes. It was to have gone to the two congregations. But the present managers prevent that. Some of these are lotholders, others are so constructively, and one is none at all. At least he was not a year ago.

The Founder of Palmyra.

Now a few words in regard to the founder of the town. He is generally believed to have been Dr. John Palm. 1776 is given as the year in which the town was laid out by Palm. But an examination of the drafts and surveys would indicate that, if he did lay out the town, he took the land out of the tract owned by his son, Wm. Palm. That was bought from J. Adam Deininger. So the surveyor's draft says, and it does not mention John Palm at all. If these surveys are to be accepted, Dr. Palm never owned the Conrad Reisch tract. Besides, no part of it was ever included in Palmyra. It is really south of Wm. Palm's land, which lay between it and the town. It may be possible that the father first owned the land, and that it passed from him to the son. These are the surveyor's statemens, when the Kean tract was surveyed. West of it, and the town, "Adam Deininger now Henry Longenecker"; south, "Adam Deininger now William Palm"; east, "Adam Deininger's other land"; north, "Adam Deininger now Joseph Karmany," and "Adam Deininger now John Ernst." On a smaller draft the following note is added: "Surveyed for John Kean, Esq., on the 12th day of January, 1805, the above described seven acres and ninety-six perches and allowance of six per cent: being part of a larger tract granted to Adam Deininger by warrant of the 18th April, 1755, situate in Londonderry Township, formerly Derry, Dauphin county.

"SAMUEL COCHRAN, Esq., Surveyor General of Penna.

"Entered at Harrisburg," etc.

Dr. John Palm was a man of considerable standing as a physician and surgeon. He served in the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War. He was born at Kloster Heilbronn, July 23, 1713, baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. He was married the first time in Germany, and had one son. Then he came to this country in the ship Patience, Aug. 11, 1750. (The church record gives Sept. 19, 1749, but no ship Patience arrived at that time.*) After settling in this section he married Salome Fenger. This wife died 1784. They had eight children. They were: John, William, Peter, Jacob,

☐ 1. The enclosed information will help answer your recent inquiry.

☐ 2. Please review carefully the enclosed leaflets which describe the contents of military and related records on file at the National Archives, and resubmit your request for copies on the enclosed GSA Form 6751, Order for Copies-Veterans Records. (Because of the volume of requests we receive each day, we must limit our service to processing requests submitted on the prescribed forms.)

☐ 3. To locate a veteran's file, we need the following information: (1) name of veteran; (2) war or period in which he fought; and (3) State from which he served.

☐ 4. The National Archives does not have records relating to military service prior to the Revolutionary War. You may be able to obtain information by writing the State archives in the State from which the veteran served.

☐ 5. The National Archives does not have records relating to service in World Wars I or II or subsequent service. You may obtain information by completing the enclosed Standard Form 180 and directing it to: National Personnel Records Center (Military), 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63132.

☐ 6. Prior to 1944, Army regulations allowed the preparation of only an original discharge certificate which was given to the soldier. The National Archives would not have the certificate on file unless it was later submitted by the veteran in support of a pension or bounty-land claim. Confederate soldiers in service at the time of surrender did not receive discharge certificates. They were given paroles, and these became the soldiers' property.

☐ 7. Pensions based on military service for the Confederate States of America were authorized by some Southern States but not by the Federal Government until 1959. Inquiries about State pensions should be addressed to the State archives or equivalent agency at the capital of the veteran's State of residence after the war.

☐ 8. A soldier's record does not necessarily show all battles or engagements in which he may have participated, nor does it necessarily list all of the officers under whom he served.

☐ 9. The bounty land warrant application files relate only to claims based on service rendered in wartime between 1775 and 1855.

☐ 10. Records in the National Archives relating to burials of veterans are incomplete. You are advised to address your request for information from burial records to the Chief, Requirements Division (42A), Monument Service, National Cemetery System, Veterans Administration, Washington, DC 20420.

☐ 11. When a file fully reproduced will contain more than ten pages of reproductions, we select from the file for reproduction the documents we determine to be of the most value to you for genealogical purposes. By specifically requesting, you may receive copies of all documents in a file. We will bill you for the additional reproduction cost.

☐ 12. A veteran's military service record is a file separate and apart from pension files and bounty land warrant application files. Compiled military service records do not normally contain family information.

☐ 13. We are enclosing reproductions of a summary of the veteran's military service, taken from his pension application file.

☐ 14. A brief history of the organization and activities of the military unit mentioned can be found in Frederick H. Dyer's A Compendium of the War of the Rebellion (New York, 1959), Volume 3. Your local library may either have this publication, or be able to assist you in locating a copy.

☐ 15. Your remittance of $_____ ☐ is enclosed ☐ will be refunded by Treasury check in a few weeks.

Dear Mrs. DeVoe,

I'm sorry we don't have the "Cronological Record of the Bolon Family". Sure wish we did. It sounds like it would be very helpfull here at the society.

Enclosed are the records I've found to date. Will look further in hopes of finding more. Hope they are a help to you.

Rt. 272
Ephrata, Pa.

Dear Sirs!

Do you have any records on Dr. John Palm b. 25 July 1713 and his second wife Catherine Salome Fenger.

I understand he had wounded soldiers moved to the Cloister following the battle of Brandywine Creek, Pa. and cared for them. Is this true?

Do you have any records on Dr. John Palm's military in the American Revolution?

Yours truly,

Mrs Doyle T. DeVoe

Sorry, but we have very little information on the soldiers who were hospitalized and died at Ephrata during the American Revolution. We have no records on Dr. John Palm.

CHRONOLOGICAL RECORD

PALM FAMILY

1 Doctor John Palm, eldest son of Matthias and Sibylla Palm, was born in the town of Heilsbroon, sometimes called Kloster Heilsbroon, in the Electorate or Principality of Brandenburg, in the Kingdom of Bavaria, July 25th., 1718. This is according to a Pass, that he had, to go to Amsterdam, dated Feby. 24th., 1742. According to Bintennagel's Church Record, he was born July 25th., 1713, (the figure 8 was evidently mistaken for 3). He died April 25th., 1799, at Palmyra, Londonderry Township, Lebanon (then Dauphin) County, Pa., aged 80 (or 85) years and 9 months. He is buried at Bintennagel's Church, near Palmyra, Pa.

Christiana Dorothea Palm, wife of Dr. John Palm, (daughter of Jacob Andrew Kern), was born in Backnang, near Stuttgard, W urtemberg, July 1st., 1709. She died between the year 1747 and 1754.

X Catharine Salome Palm, second wife of Dr. John Palm, was born in Germany, probably about the year 1730. Her maiden name was Catharine Salome Fenger. She died at Palmyra, Pa., in 1764, and is buried at Bintennagel's Church.

Elizabeth Palm, third wife of Dr. John Palm, was born in Germany, time and place not known. She was formerly married to a man by the name of Williams. She died at Palmyra, Pa., Nov. 25th. or 26th., 1815, and is buried at Bintennagel's Church. Her age was about 82 years.

Doctor Peter Palm, son of Dr. John Palm. was born in or near Elizabeth, New Jersey, Feb'y. 18th., 1761. He died at Sinking Springs, Berks Co., Pa., March 31st., 1826, aged 67 years, 1 mo. and 13 days. He is buried at the Sinking Springs Church.

X Catharine Palm, wife of Dr. Peter Palm, was born near Shafferstown, Lebanon (then Lancaster) Co., Pa., about six or seven miles southwest of Lebanon, in 1768. She died January 24th., 1825, aged 57 years. Her maiden name was Catharine Schwolley. She is buried at the Sinking Springs Church.

Doctor Francis Palm, youngest son of Dr. Peter Palm, was born at Sinking Springs, Cumru Township, Berks Co., Pa., Sept. 5th., 1802. He died (near Friedensburg, on his way home from a patient), June 23rd., 1864, aged 61 years, 9 months, and 18 days. He is buried at the Evangelical Church, at Friedensburg, Berks Co., Pa. -- Funeral sermon by Rev. Thos. Bowman, of the Evang'l Association.-- St. Math. Chapt. XXIV--Verse 44.

Catharine Palm, wife of Dr. Francis Palm, and daughter of Philip and Susabbah Rieser, was born in Bern Township, Berks Co., Pa., December 7th., 1799. She died at Friedensburg, at 10 o'clock in the evening, January 20th., 1862, aged 62 years, 1 mo. and 13 days. She is buried at the Evangelical Church, (of which she was a member) at Friedensburg, Berks Co., Pa. Funeral sermon by Rev. Mr. Butz, of the Evgl. Association.-- II Cor. Chapt. V--Verse 1.

Doctor William Palm, eldest son of Doctor Peter Palm, was born at Sinking Springs, Cumru Township, Berks County, Pa., Dec. 22nd., 1789. He died at Sinking Springs, Dec. 7th., 1851, aged 61 years, 11 months and 15 days. He is buried at Sinking Springs Church.

Elizabeth Palm, wife of Doctor William Palm, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 20th., 1796. Her maiden name was Alizabeth Hepler. She died June 24th., 1847, aged 51 years and 4 days. She is buried at Sinking Springs Church.

BIOGRAPHICAL

DOCTOR JOHN PALM

Dr. John Palm, a German Physician, eldest son of Matthias and Sibylla Palm, was born in Heilsbronn, in the Electorate or Principality of Brandenburg, near Nuremburg, in the middle circle of Franconia, in the Kingdom of Bavaria, July 25, 1713 (according to the Bintennagel's Church Record.) but in 1718, according to his Pass of 1740. About the year 1739, he took up his residence at Backnang, near Stuttgard, in Wurtemberg, where he was married to Christiana Dorothea, daughter of Jacob A. Kern, Aug. 2nd., 1740. His parents being poor, he here worked in a Stocking Factory, for several years. On the 14th. of February, 1742, his father sent him to Amsterdam, in Holland, to see his father's brother, John George Palm, who was without family, and had accumulated a large fortune, in the employ of the East India Company, of Amsterdam. He did not see his uncle, as he had sailed as Captain, in one of the Companie's ships, for India. Being in poor health when he sailed, he probably died on the voyage, or in India. How, or to whom, his property was disposed of, is not known. His brother Matthais, would have been the legal heir, but never received it. The amount is said to have been several millions of Gulden, and was probably taken possession of, by the Government of Holland. It was probably soon after his return from Amsterdam, that John Palm commenced the study of medicine, in Wurtemberg, being no doubt assisted by some of his friends there, as there are quite a number of the Palm family in Wurtemberg even now, most of whom, are Physicians and Druggists. He probably left his native country, for America, in the summer of 1750, as the name of John Palm is on the Passenger list of the "Ship Patience". Captain Hugh Steel, from Rotterdam, late from Cowes. Said ship arrived August 11th., 1750.

Bintennagel's Church Record, has his arrival in 1749. Germany,(especially the upper part), at the commencement of the seventeenth century, contained many Protestants, Moravians, Schwenkfelders, Mennonites, Dunkers or Seventh Day Baptists and Lutherans, who, after fleeing in vain from one Principality to another, to avoid persecution, found an assylum in this new land. Many settled in the upper part of New Jersey, in the vicinity of Elizabeth and Springfield, N. J. On February 18, 1761, his son Peter was born, near Elizabeth, New Jersey. In the meantime, through Wm. Penn's offer of free religious toleration, thousands flocked to Pennsylvania, many at once settled in Lancaster county, as that county was comparatively new, being the fourth county. It was organized in 1729. Philadelphia, Bucks and Chester, were the three original Counties. On the 17th. of June, 1766, he bought 100 acres of land from Conrad Raish, in Lebanon township, Lancaster (now Lebanon) county, Pa., where he settled and commenced to improve his farm and practice medicine.

That part of the country, at that time, was still almost a wilderness, the last Indians having left only three years before. In the course of a few years, quite a settlement sprung up in that place and gradually a village, which received the name Palmstown or "Palmstettle", (so named after him.) The name has since been changed to Palmyra, though it is still frequently called by its old name. In 1764, his second wife died. Being nearly sixty years old, when the Revolutionary War broke out, he was too old to take an active part in the struggle; though he was at the Battle of Brandywine, September 11th., 1777. He was probably attached to Gen. Green's Division, which was posted as a reserve, between Sullivan and Wayne, to reinforce either, as circumstances might require.--He used to relate how Washington, on a white horse, came riding up, encouraging his men. On the 27th. of September, 1777, he took the Oath of Allegiance and fidelity, under the Act of the Legislature of 1777, before John Thome.

About the year 1785 or 1790, he was married the third time, to Elizabeth Williams, a widow. He had an extensive practice, and owing to the country being thinly settled, it was very laborious. Patients frequently came from long distances, to consult him. The medicines he used, were mostly of vegetable extraction. Having an extensive Laboratory, he prepared most of his medicines. He distilled his own essential oils, waters, etc., from herbs and flowers, Being a contemporary of Beerhaave, he adopted many of his theories and doctrines, and placed much reliance on the appearance of the excretion, in disease, especially that of the kidneys. He was also a contemporary of Linnaeus, Cullen, Sauwages, Van Sweiten and DeHaen. His medical works were mostly by German authors. One of his books, in possession of the writer of this Record, (Dr. P. R. Palm,) a work on Materia Medica, is probably 300 years old. On the inside of the cover is a record of his birth and death, and place of nativity. In his Pass (of February 24th., 1742,) he is described as being "24 years of age, medium size, light hair, and wearing a brown coat etc." He was baptized and confirmed into the Lutherand church. He died at Palmyra, Pa., April 25th., 1799, having practiced medicine in this country for half a century. His will was dated of August, 1796;and the codicil, December 10th., 1797. And probate, by the Register of Wills, Sept. 5, 1799, Harrisburg, Pa.

ELIZABETH PALM

Elizabeth Palm, wife of Dr. John Palm, was formerly married to a man by the name of Williams. She was married to Dr. Palm about the year 1785 or 1790. She was born in Germany, probably about the year 1753. Her life was quite an eventful one, as will appear from the following, taken from the History of Berks and Lebanon counties, page 72. "Hanover, Lancaster county, Pa., August 11th., 1757, Monday 8th. On Wednesday we intended to rest, but at about 12 o'clock had another alarm. Near Benjamin Clarke's house, four miles from the mill, two Indians surprised Isaac William's wife and the WIDOW WILLIAMS. They killed and scalped the former, in sight of the house. She having run a little way, after three balls had been shot through her body. The latter they carried away the captive."

In the Colonial Records of 1762, at page 750, Vol. VIII, the following account is given of her restoration. "At a conference with the Northern Indians, held in Lancaster, on Thursday, the 19th. of August, 1762, The conference broke up, and the Governor, his Council and the Commissioners, went with some Indian Chiefs, to the Court House, to receive the prisoners. Where being come, the Governor, acquainted Thomas King, that he was ready to receive the prisoners from him, and that they need not be under apprehensions of being used ill, for that he should be kind to them, and treat them like children and restore them to their parents and relatives. Then they delivered to Lieut. Governor Hamilton, ESQ., (under Hon. Thomas Penn and Richard Penn, Proprietors of the Province of Pennsylvania) at the hands of King Beaver, ELIZABETH WILLIAMS, a young woman, delivered up by Mussause, a Muncy Indian; Also Henry Williams about 18 years old brother (?) to Elizabeth Williams, delivered by Canyhocheratoquin, a Muncy." She had therefore been a captive, amongst the Delaware or Lenni Lenape tribe, for five years. An account of her restoration to her friends, is also given in the History of Berks and Lebanon counties, on page 345. After her marriage to Dr. Palm, he, often in a playful way, called her his "Indian Squaw". Her Will is recorded in Lebanon, Pa. It is dated November 25th., 1815. She gave all her estate to her sons, Nicholas and John Williams, to her daughter Mary Doll, Rebecca Palm, (a daughter of Michael Palm", Dalilah Palm, and to her grand-daughter Catherine Shougher. The Will was recorded in Lebanon, Pa., November 28th., 1815. She died at the house of William Early, near Palmyra, November 25th., or 26th., 1815.

ancestor X

Dr. Peter Palm, son of Dr. John Palm, and his wife Catharine S., was born in or near Elizabeth, New Jersey, February 18th., 1761. He removed with his father to Lebanon Township, Lancaster (now Lebanon) county, Pa., about the year 1766. He commenced reading medicine with his father, about the year 1778. From him, he received a good practical, medical education. There being no medical schools, excepting the Philadelphia College, and the University of Pennsylvanis, (which was then just struggling into existence.) he had to rely mostly, on the facilities found in his father's extensive Laboratory and Library, and teachings. He moved to Sinking Springs, Cumru township, Berks Co., Pa., probably about the year 1785, where he commenced the practice of medicine, and continued to do so, for forty odd years. He had an extensive practice, and enjoyed the confidence of all who knew gim. Like his father, he prepared most of his own medicines, using extensively, those of the Vegetable Kingdom. At the death of his father, he fell heir to all his books, medicines and office fixtures. He was about 5 ft. 9 inches high and had gray eyes. He was possessed of a strong and robust constitution. He died March 31st., 1828.

DR. FRANCIS PALM

Dr. Francis Palm, youngest son of Dr. Peter Palm, was born at Sinking Springs, Cumru township, Berks Co., Pa., September 5th., 1802. He read medicine with his father, and attended lectures at the University of Pennsylvania, under the Faculty composed of Professors Chapman, Physick, Dorsey, Hare, Gibson, John Syng Dorsey and James.-- About the year 1825 or 1826, he located at Friedensburg, Berks Co., Pa,m where he commenced the practice of medicine. He had an extensive practice, and being an old practitioner, he was known and consulted by persons from afar. He, too, like his father and grandfather, prepared many of his medicines. In stature, he was about 5 ft. 10 inches. He had dark, curly hair and gray eyes. He possessed a strong and healthy constitution, weighing from 180, to over 200 lbs. But during the last eight or ten years of his life, owing, to the ardious duties of his profession, his health began to fail, and he became subject to disease of the heart, from which he suffered, to the time of his death. During a practice of about 40 years, he seldom refused his services, to rich or poor. During the latter part of his life, he frequently expressed a desire to retire from practice, but found it impossible to do so, to the injury of his own health. He was baptised and confirmed into the Lutheran Church. He was married to Catharine Rieser, daughter of Philip and Susannah Rieser, (whose maiden name was Winter.) in 1824. He died at the house of Mr. Augustus Hoch, about two miles from home, as he was returning from his last patient, a lady in confinement, June 23rd., 1864, from Angina Pectoria.

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL

Dr. Philip R. Palm, eldest son of Dr. Francis Palm, was born in Bern Township, Berks County, Pa., about one mile Southwest of Leesport, March 10th., 1825. In the Spring of 1842, he entered the Academy at Myerstown, Lebanon Co., Pa., and remained under the tutorage of Messrs. Evans, Chapman and White, until the Spring of 1844, when he commenced reading Medicine with Dr. Jeremiah Breitenbach, at Myerstown, Lebanon county, Pa.; having previously read with his Father. In the Fall of 1844, he entered the Jefferson Medical College, at Philadelphia, Pa., under the faculty composed of Professors Robley Dunglison, John K. Mitchell, Thomas D. Mutter, Joseph Pancoast, Charles D. Meigs, Franklin Bache, and Robert M. Huston. He graduated on the 24rg. of March, 1846. The Commencement was held at the Musical Fund Hall. (Valedictory address by Prof. Dunglison.) He commenced the Practice of Medicine, at Berkley, Berks county, Pa. , in the Spring of 1846. On the 15th. of September, 1846, he was married to Isabella, daughter of George Lindenmuth, of Myerstown, Lebanon county, Pa., where he practiced medicine, until November, 1848, when he removed to Schuylkill Haven, Schuylkill county, Pa., where he practiced medicine, until January 1859, when, having been elected a Member of the Legislature, he served in that capacity, during the Session of 1859; when he again resumed his practice, until 1862, when Gov. Curtin called for Assistant Surgeons, for the U. S. Army.

The Board of Medical Examiners convened at Harrisburg, Pa., on the 10th. or 11th. of September, 1862, in the Senate-Chamber and House of Representatives (morning and afternoon sessions.) Dr. Palm having passed the examinations, was ordered to report immediately, to Surgeon Gen Smith, who assigned him to the 110th. Regt. Pa. Vols. (Col. Wm. D. Lewis,) as first Assistant, in place of Assist. Surgeon Wm. Church, who was promoted.

He reached the Regiment, at Arlington Heights, Va,, at noon September 18th., 1862. He remained with the Regiment during the Battle of Fredericksburg. For several days after the battle, he remained with the wounded, at the Hospital, near Fredericksburg, which contained hundreds of Patients. Several days after, he was ordered to take charge of the Medical Department of the Regiment. He remained with the 110th., until December 18, 1862, when he was notified by Surgeon Gen. King, that he had been promoted, to Regimental Surgeon, and was ordered to report for duty, to the Co. of the 137th. Regiment Pa. Vols. He was mustered out, as Assist. Surgeon, at Washington, D. C., and was mustered in as Surgeon; his Commission to date from the 13th. of December, 1862, (the day of the Battle of Fredericksburg.) He joined his Regiment, at Aquia Creek, on Sunday noon, December 21st., 1862. He was Surgeon of the 137th. Regiment Penna. Vols., until the close of its term. He was selected as one of the Members of the Operating Corps, in which he served during the second Battle of Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville. He was mustered out with the Regiment, at Harrisburg, Pa., June 2nd., 1863.

On the 11th. of October, 1863, he moved to Allentown, Pa. In the beginning of November, 1869, he commenced this "Family Record," and finished it September 1st., 1870.

Isabella Palm, wife of Dr. Philip R. Palm, youngest daughter of George and Mary Lindenmuth, was born in Myerstown, Lebanon county, Pa., July 24th., 1826.

Flora Louisa Palm, only daughter of Dr. P. R. Palm, was born at Bernville, Berks Co., Pa., March 21st., 1848.

DR.JAMES P. PALM

Dr. James P. Palm, second son of Dr. Francis Palm, was born in Friedensburg, Berks Co., Pa., August 30th., 1826. He resided with his parents, until the Spring of 1864, when he commenced reading medicine with his brother P. R. Palm, at Berkley, Berks county, Pa.; and afterwards at Bernville, Berks county, Pa. In the Fall of 1847he entered the Jefferson Medical College, at Philadelphia, Pa., under the Faculty composed of Professors Dunglison, Mitchell, Mutter, Pancoast, Meigs, Bache and Huston. In the Spring of 1848, he resumed his studies with his brother, at Bernville, Pa. He was married in 1848 to Lydia Dundore. In the Fall of 1848, he attended the second course, at the Jefferson Medical College, and graduated on the 28th. of March, 1849. The commencement was held at the Musical Fund Hall. Prof. Bache delivered the Valedictory Address, to the Graduating Class. In the Spring of 1849, he commenced the practice of Medicine, at Orwigsburg, Schuylkill county, Pa. He resided in Orwigsburg until September 17th., 1857, when he removed to Schuylkill Haven, Pa.

Lydia Palm, wife of Dr. James P. Palm, was born in Heidelberg township, Berks county, Pa., April 1st., 1825.--Her maiden name was Lydia Dundore.

Mary Alice Palm, daughter of Dr, James P. Palm, was born at Orwigsburg, Schuylkill county, Pa., April 28th., 1849.

Pancoast Francis Palm, son of Dr. James P. Palm, was born at Orwigsburg, Schuylkill county, September 19th., 1851. Died Deeember 24th., 1856.

Howard Francis Palm, son of Dr. James P. Palm, was born at Orwigsburg, Schuylkill county, Pa., March 22nd., 1855.

Walter Edwin Palm, son of Dr. James P. Palm, was born at Schuylkill Haven, Schuylkill Co., Pa., September 8th., 1858. Died April 26th., 1860.

DR. WILLIAM PALM

Dr. William Palm, son of Dr. Peter Palm, was born at Sinking Springs, Berks Co., Pa., December 22nd., 1789. He read Medicine with his Father. In 1809,1810 and 1811 he attended Lectures at the University of Pennsylvania, under the Faculty composed of Professors Wistar, Rush, Barton, Coxe, Physick, Dorsey and James. In 1812, he commenced to practice medicine and was widely known. Like his father, he had the confidence of the entire community. He, also, prepared many of his own medicines, and was a good Botanist. He continued to practice medicine at Sinking Springs, for nearly 40 years. On the 11th. of September, 1812, he was married to Elizabeth Hopler, of Philadelphia, Pa. He was a member of the Lutheran church. In stature, he was 5 ft. 11 inches. Had dark hair and dark eyes.

Dr. Henry Palm, son of Dr. William Palm, was married to Ann E. Bond of Philadelphia, Pa., December 23rd., 1852.

Ann E. Palm, wife of Dr. Henry Palm, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 19th., 1831.

NOTES

John, Jacob and Nicholas Palm, sons of Dr. Palm, took the oath of allegiance and fidelity, under the Act of Assembly 1777, the former two, June 13th., 1777 and the latter August 12th., 1778, before John Thome.

William Palm, son of Dr. John Palm, died October 10th., 1806, and is buried at Bintennagel's Church.

According to Margaret Schmidt's statement, attempts were made to recover the estate of John George Palm, by the descendants of Matthias Palm, through "Herr Pfarrer Stadelmann", between the years 1791 and 1895, but owing to some misunderstanding between the parties, the matter was abandoned.

I am indebted to the following persons, for the information contained in this record viz:--To Margaret Schmidt and E. A. Aundinger, of Heilsbronn, Bavaria; Rev. Seutserheld, Weissenbronn; Rev.
